

“Understanding Dad”

Building a father friendly world

Celebrating 15 years of DadsWork in East Lothian.

As part of our 15 year celebration DadsWork are delighted to be working in partnership with Father’s Network Scotland and Support from the Start to offer four opportunities for practitioners across East Lothian to attend an excellent ½ day training programme called Understanding dad delivered by Chris Miezitis (Fathers Network

What Course Participants have said?

“Attending the Understanding Dad training has hugely changed our practice” - read case study!

“This has made me aware of my own practice and realise how excluded dads can feel”.

“I’ve learned how a small change in practice can encourage dads to be involved in contacts we have with families”

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the course participants will have:

- Developed their ability to identify aspects of their practice they intend to change to be more father-inclusive
- An improved understanding of the messages children, young people, families, workers and services give and receive about parenthood, families and the role of the father
- Improved knowledge, skills and confidence to better engage male parents and carers successfully
- Improved value and understanding of the role of the father and father figures

To book (Limited spaces)

29th May 2018 – 09.30am-12.30pm– Prestonpans <https://understandingdadprestonpans.eventbrite.com>

19th June 2018 – 09.30-12.30pm – Musselburgh <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/understanding-dad-musselburgh-tickets-45059181224>

28th August 2018-09.30-12.30pm – Tranent <https://understandingdadtranent.eventbrite.com>

25th September 2018 -09.30am – 12.30pm – Haddington <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/understanding-dad-haddington-tickets-45059370791>

Contact: Kevin Young: 07833741768 / 01316650848 or email dadswork@hotmail.co.uk

